

Job Title: Programmer Analyst I (PT)
Position Number: 2WEBDVL-HNC-1
Campus: Central
Department: ITS-AIS
Job Description: Responsibilities include producing standards-based web designs for team projects. Direction will be given by senior team members, and projects may include: developing content layouts, graphic banners, Flash components, and working prototypes for College websites and web applications. Performs other duties as assigned.

Requirements: This position requires an Associates degree in Web Design or related discipline preferred. One year producing standards-compliant cross-browser websites. Knowledge of JavaScript, XHTML, CSS. Digital image editing and web optimization using Adobe Photoshop or Fireworks. Experience using Flash to complement designs. Attention to detail, and creativity in problem-solving. Ability to work in a team and to communicate in clearly when interacting with team members, staff, and faculty. Knowledge of current web-design trends and techniques. A strong online portfolio is a plus.

Apply to: Send completed resume to Ken Ingle at: Ken.ingle@cpcc.edu